Career Objective

I'm a resourceful and adaptable Digital Design and Development student from Republic Polytechnic, passionate about creating meaningful digital experiences through full-stack development, UI/UX design, and emerging tech like AR/VR and AI. I enjoy solving problems creatively, collaborating with others, and continuously learning new tools and techniques. I'm seeking an internship opportunity where I can contribute fresh ideas, strengthen my technical skills, and grow in a team that values innovation and design thinking.

Projects & Experience (School)

Unity Escape Room Project – Created a 4-room escape-room experience in Unity using C#, complete with interactive objects, pressure-plate mechanisms, keypad puzzles, and door-unlocking sequences. Developed the full gameplay flow, including trigger events, room logic, and puzzle interaction systems to ensure smooth player progression.

Node.js Team Project – Engineered backend features for a collaborative Node.js project, delivering scalable CRUD operations for team modules and developing a secure authentication + role-based authorization system. Ensured proper session handling, data validation, and controlled access for different user roles.

Portfolio Website Design – Crafted a professional, modern portfolio website layout using Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator. Established a cohesive visual identity by creating custom icons, typography sets, and color palettes. Applied core UI/UX principles—such as hierarchy, alignment, and consistency—to deliver an intuitive and visually engaging user experience.
